F. MALANI.

Woman's Onward March.

There came a time in the history of my life when I suddenly realized that I can tell a brierwood from a meerschaum while it is being smoked. It was borne in upon me that by years of subtle training I had come to know a "Perfecto" from a "two-for-a-nickel." It flashed upon my sinful soul that I, Sappho, the scorner of nicotine, was myself a connoisseur of the delicate and difficult art of distinguishing — even from the next room—the varying characteristics of differing kinds of Turkish tobacco. I found, to my amazement, that I knew the perfumed Turkish cigarettes lose their national characteristics coming over land and sea to Boston, and that a Richmond cigarette is more grateful (vicariously) to my nostrils.

I can smell this moment the peculiar peanut nuttiness of an old clay pipe and the almond nuttiness of a new Henry Clay cigar, and I can recall to a whiff the experimental odor of a corncob brimming with rank plug. Yet I never smoked but once in my life. Then I choked on burning mullein leaves recommended for a cold! It is one of the results of the opening of modern occupations for women that I have become so learned in this way. I don't know yet whether or not I am proud of my wisdom, but it is certain that I have no vicarious amusement more charmingly altruistic than smoking.—A Woman in Boston Transcript.

The Use of Poetry.

Nearly all the other arts have an official standing. They are endowed, perpetuated, made part of the apparatus of life. But we are as incredulous of poetry as of the sea serpent, and the affidavits of those who have seen the thing itself do not convince a sceptical world. Poetry's killing foe is wealth, and wealth of late has grown beyond the dreams of avarice. Money, which can call into existence many of the arts, which can rear architectures, lay out gardens, give to household decoration a sumptuous beauty impossible to poor ages, which can even greatly help in the creation of music and painting—money has no potency over the proud and disdainful muse.

But the future of poetry is immense, because when actualities oppress, when utilities task, when, "tired of all these, for restful death we cry," all we need do is to open our books and without struggle to partake the strife, without effort to attain the ease, without putting off mortality to have part in the immortality of those sole things which show a semblance of eternal life—the creations of the divine poets. Ponce de Leon sailed far for his fabled fountain of youth, but the wiser man is he who takes down his Homer or his Shakespeare and discovers therein the spring the Spaniard failed to find.—Forum.

A Strange Selection.

It is an easy and very profitable business to smuggle rifles into Morocco. A weapon may be bought in Gibraltar for $10 and sold in the interior for five or six times that sum. Smugglers are continually running over in feluccas and beaching these arms somewhere between Cape Spartel and Tangier, and curious are the devices by which they accomplish their transport.

One smuggler told a traveler that he ran his cargo into Tangier bay after dark and unloaded the rifles on the beach not a quarter of a mile from the custom house.

"Who assists you in unloading?" asked the traveler.

"I generally employ the porters of the custom house," was the innocent reply.

Then, noting the surprise and amusement of his hearers, he added:

"They are more skilled in unloading than other laborers."

It had evidently neither occurred to him nor to the porters that they might betray him.—Youth's Companion.

Hypnotism and Dentistry.

For a quarter of a century I have been hoping that the principles of hypnotism as now developed might be applied so as to bring relief to patients during dental operations. It is with pleasure that I am able today to report a pronounced success in that direction—a success that I believe will continue, and the methods will be so formulated that the art will be within the reach of every intelligent operator on the human teeth. I found that it was the opinion of writers on hypnotism that pain would always wake a patient from the hypnotic sleep unless such patient was in a somnambulistic condition. I felt it might be quite possible to derive distinct benefit in the lighter stages if they could be kept continuous. I soon believed it possible, and after a diligent study of Bernheim I commenced to hypnotize, and my first effort proved a success.—Thomas Fillebrown, D. M. D., in Dental Review.

Smoke and Cold Weather.

There can be no doubt that the smoke blanket modifies the temperature of the city. There is nothing new in the fact. Gilbert White of Selborne, who died 100 years ago, wrote, "When a thermometer hangs abroad in a frosty night, the intervention of a cloud shall immediately raise the mercury 10 degrees, and a clear sky shall again compel it to descend to its former gauge."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Passion For Diamonds.

"Diamonds are rather plentiful nowadays," began Richard Burlsett, the veteran jeweler, who is registered at the Laclede, "but like really great men there are very few large ones. We all know of the Koh-i-noor, the whilom treasure of the kahn of Persia, and again the great orange diamond, now in possession of the German emperor, but the largest diamonds are not always finest. Sometimes a large diamond fails to sparkle properly, lacks radiance and color. Such a stone upon being divided will often make several very brilliant and valuable small diamonds, whose aggregate value would be more than the great colorless original. In the early dawn of civilization diamonds were the cause of more crime than even gold or silver. They have been swallowed for safe keeping, frequently causing death. Murder after murder can be traced to one or the other of these great diamonds as the primal cause. Some dire state intrigues and plots have had a diamond for the center or nucleus."—Exchange.

How to Make a Fondu.

A fondu is a hot dish of cheese, highly seasoned, which may be served as a course at dinner or as a dainty dish at supper time. It may be cooked in individual molds or in one large cake mold. It must be served as soon as it is baked in the dish that it is cooked in.

The pretty little round ramekin dishes of fluted china which may be found nowadays at any china store are suitable to cook a fondu in. Like most all hot dishes containing cheese, the fondu is an English dish. A simple rule is as follows: Grate a quarter of a pound of cheese. Half Parmesan and half good rich dairy cheese is best, but it may be made entirely of dairy cheese if you prefer. Put the grated cheese in a bowl, add half a teaspoonful of salt and a pinch of cayenne pepper. Beat in the yolks of 6 eggs and 2 ounces of melted butter. Add then the whites of 6 eggs, beaten to a stiff froth. Bake it in a moderately hot oven for about 20 minutes and serve.—New York Tribune.

A Story of Werner von Siemens.

A curious story is told in the autobiographical "Memoirs" of the great German electrical engineer, Werner von Siemens. When he was engaged laying the first telegraph cable between Verviers and Cologne, about the year 1850, a lady came to him and told him with many tears how his telegraph threatened with utter ruin the business of her husband, who had for years carried on a very successful pigeon post between Brussels and Aix-la-Chapelle, and was now broken hearted at the gloomy prospect before him.

Siemens strongly advised the young couple to roast their pigeons and promised his assistance if they went to London and started a news agency. This the young man, who was then Herr Reuter, the founder of the telegraphic business which goes by his name, proceeded to do, and in a few years became a rich man, a baron and indeed a power in Europe.

A President's Perquisites.

One day Chauncey M. Depew sat in his office patiently talking to a middle aged spinster with the traditional corkscrew curls dangling from under a gayly beribboned bonnet. She was asking his advice about business investments, and finally she wished to know something in regard to real estate. "Ah," he said in his most soothing tones, "there are two things I know nothing about, and they are women and real estate." Then she suddenly kissed the after dinner orator and marched out. Several men who were waiting in a corner of the room to talk to Mr. Depew advanced, laughing at the osculation scene they were compelled to witness. Wheeling his chair about he merrily said, "Gentlemen, the president of the road is entitled to all such perquisites."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

An Inveterate Smoker.

A young boy at Chattanooga is said to have been an inveterate smoker since he was 4 years of age. His mother, in speaking of the lad's strong inclination for tobacco, said: "Looking back to when he was 4 years of age, I can remember he was then an inveterate smoker, having stealthily obtained his grandmother's pipe and cultivated the natural desire for tobacco. I was always fearful of attempting to break him of the habit, and therefore in that one respect he has always followed his own inclinations. He is 15 years old now and never retires at night without having a pipe of tobacco near the bed for use during the night."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Lofty Monuments.

Cromlechs, found in many countries, are rude monuments to the dead. Nearly 70 round towers, from 30 to 135 feet high, are found in various parts of Ireland. They are believed to have been used in the ceremonies of fire worship.—Exchange.

Getting His Money.

Miss Kulsher—Mr. Nibbler, do you write for the papers still?

Mr. Nibbler—No; I found it didn't pay. I sold a story to an editor for a sovereign five years ago, and then spent £3 buying the paper before it was published.—London Tit-Bits.

BUILT A RAILROAD ON FAITH.

A Texas Man Who Constructed a Six Hundred Mile Line on $5.

From south Texas came a man who built 600 miles of railroad with a $5 bill and faith, and the bill was a borrowed one. He moved up from Corpus Christi to San Antonio with all his possessions heaped on a 2-wheeled cart. He got a charter to build a railroad from San Antonio to Aransas Pass. He graded a mile of it, throwing a good deal more than one shovel full of dirt with his own hands. The receiver of another road loaned this indefatigable builder enough old rails for a mile of track. In a distant part of the state was purchased an engine which had been condemned six years before and sent to the shops to be wrecked for scrap iron. Two old cars were picked up somewhere else at a bargain, and that old engine, drawing those old cars, steamed into San Antonio. On engine and cars in bold lettering was painted in lampblack, "S. A. and A. P."

With one mile of old rail track and with the equipment of the old engine and the two old cars Uriah Lott started the Aransas Pass system. There has been some tall financiering in the history of railroad building in this country, but there isn't anything which for dazzling pluck quite approaches the story of the building of this 600 miles of road in south Texas. To the one mile of track there were added three miles by a dicker for some secondhand rails which a street car company had bought from a narrow gauge company. On this basis a credit trade was made with a Pennsylvania rolling mill for 10 miles of rails. When they arrived, there wasn't money enough in the treasury to pay the freight, but it was got somehow.

Ten miles of track gave the foundation for bonds which built 40 miles more, and so the system grew into its present proportions. This man who built the Aransas Pass system rode from San Antonio to Chicago at one critical period in his enterprise without a cent in his pocket. He had transportation, but he hadn't any thing to buy food, and he went right through hungry.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Stooping Habit.

One of the greatest and most common deformities of the day that are laid bare by the prevailing styles of men and women's attire is one that, with a little care and attention, can be remedied. It is the round shouldered or stooping habit. I say habit because, as a rule, it results from habit. Look through this car. Even the best natural figures show this tendency to stoop, while in the narrow chested it is marked to a painful degree. And yet, by raising one's self leisurely upon the toes in a perpendicular position several times a day, this deformity could be easily rectified. To do this properly one must be in a perfectly upright position, the arms dropping at the side, the heels well together and the toes forming an angle of 45 degrees.—New York Mail and Express.

The Oldest Tree on Earth.

The oldest tree on earth, at least as far as any one knows, is the Boo tree in the sacred city of Amarapoora, Burmah. It was planted, the records say, in the year 288 B. C., and is therefore 2,200 years old. Its great age is proved by historic documents, says Sir James Emerson, who adds, "To it kings have dedicated their kingdoms in testimony of a belief that it is a branch of the identical fig tree under which Buddha reclined at Uoa when he was undergoing his apotheosis." Its leaves are carried away by pilgrims as relics, but as it is too sacred to be touched, even with a knife, they can only be gathered after they have fallen.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Trees of Canada.

Some portions of Canada and the Province of Quebec produce fine trees. The soil of upper and lower California and through to Oregon produce noble specimens of the ancient forests. The color, density and porosity of the soil denotes that trees grown in those regions attain immense size and solidity. There is no absence of the physical properties required to promote the chemical combination and decomposition of all foliage that falls from their branches, and all decayed limbs and other matter add to the vitality of the trees and undergrowth.—Boston Transcript.

Laundry Prices.

A Japanese laundry has produced the following advertisement: "Contrary to our opposite company, we will most cleanly and carefully wash our customers with possible cheap prices as follows: Ladies, 2 dol. per 100; gentlemen, 1½ dol. per 100."—Exchange.

Mere Matter of Time.

Mrs. Binks—How does it happen that Mrs. Nexdoor can afford to dress better than I can?

Mr. Binks—They haven't been married long, and I presume he isn't quite broke yet.—New York Weekly.

A Modern Ill.

The typewriter backache is rapidly gaining as secure a position among the ills of humanity as "the bicycle stoop." It should be guarded against as far as possible by a high seat and a footstool.—New York Times.

Board of Supervisors.

MONDAY, April 3d.

The Board of Supervisors met at the Court House, Santa Rosa, on the above date, all the members being present.

Bids for building a bridge over Santa Rosa creek at Ballou crossing were opened, and the contract awarded to J. M. Wiley, the lowest bidder. His bid was $2.40 per lineal foot.

On motion of Supervisor Thompson the following bills for road commissioners were allowed: J. W. Hall, $174; Jacob Joost, $142; J. Sales, $332; J. W. Hall, $24; and on motion of Supervisor Hall the bills of P. H. Thompson for $68.70 and James A. Meade for $287.

TUESDAY, April 4th.

The second day of the April session was almost entirely given over to the consideration of bills and road matters.

The quarterly report of Supervisor Hall, ex-officio road commissioner of Santa Rosa, Russian River and Fulton road districts, was accepted and approved.

The allowance for indigents for the month of April were as follows: Analy, $92; Bodega, $48; Cloverdale, $16; Mendocino, $84; Ocean, $6; Petaluma, $114; Redwood, $28.50; Russian River, $25; Sonoma, $20; Salt Point, $21; Santa Rosa, $193.50.

On motion of Supervisor Hall an order was made requiring that indigents' petitions contain all the data required by law and that the Clerk keep a book as required by statute.

On motion of Supervisor Hall the County Physician's salary was changed from $1,400 to $1,300 per annum, and that the county furnish the necessary medicines.

The quarterly reports of Jacob Joost, as road commissioner of Redwood, Ocean and Fort Ross road districts, were accepted and also the reports of Commissioners Sales and Thompson of their respective districts.

THURSDAY, April 6th.

A lively and interesting scene was enacted Thursday, during the usually quiet session of the Board. The cause of this unexpected excitement was a petition from the Central Street Railway Company praying for authority to lay and construct a railroad from the Santa Rosa city line on McDonald avenue along the avenue and county road, running by Odd Fellows cemetery to Humboldt street.

No action was taken by the Board and the matter was taken under advisement.

On motion of Supervisor Hall a warrant in favor of F. G. Nagle on account of money paid on tax title, by order of the former Board, and payment having been refused by Treasurers of County and State the same was ordered cancelled.

The quarterly reports of Supervisor Joost, as road commissioner of Bodega and Stewart's Point townships, were approved.

The reports of Auditor and Treasurer were received and approved.

The matter of the city of Santa Rosa petitioning for the privilege of laying water pipes along certain county roads came up for hearing. City Attorney Cowan was present on behalf of the city and after considerable discussion the matter ended by the introduction of a resolution by Mr. Hall. The resolution provides that in case the water proposition should carry authority is granted to lay pipes and dig ditches, providing the roads are put in as good a condition as they were before and the work be done so as not to impede the public travel. There was an affirmative vote of all the members.

The Board adjourned to the call of the chair for the purpose of visiting the County Farm.

FRIDAY, April 7th.

The Board met Friday at the call of chair at 1:30 o'clock and proceeded to the consideration of the petition of Wm. Looney and Peterson Bros. to be moved from the Mark West school district to Fulton district, and it appearing that it would confer a great benefit on the interested parties the petition was granted.

On motion of Supervisor Thompson, Jacob Joost, ex-officio road master of Ocean district, was authorized to rebuild the bridge across Russian gulch, situated on the line of the Fort Ross and Duncan's Mills road, which was destroyed by the last storm, the cost not to exceed $400, one-half to be paid out of Ocean road district fund and the other half out of the county general road fund.

The Board then adjourned until the following day.

SATURDAY, April 8th.

The report of L. W. Ridenhour, poundmaster of Redwood district, was adopted.

Coyote bounties were ordered paid to the amount of $75.

On motion a part of the itemized bill of J. C. Mailer for putting in a bath tub at the Sheriff's office, amounting to $11.85, was disallowed. All present voted aye but Mr. Joost.

The motion of Mr. Joost that a committee be appointed to examine roads in Bodega district prevailed, and the chairman appointed Messrs. Hall and Joost as such committee.

Mrs. Lena Borgwardt was granted a monthly indigent allowance of $8 per month.

Preventing Future Misery.

If there is, in this vale of tears, a more prolific source of misery than the rheumatic twinge, we have yet to hear of it. People are born with a tendency to rheumatism, just as they are with one to consumption or to scrofula. Slight causes may develop this. As soon as the agonizing complaint manifests itself, recourse should be had to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which checks its further inroads and banishes the rheumatic poison from the system. This statement tallies exactly with the testimony of physicians who have employed this fine blood depurent in their private practice. There is also the amplest professional and general testimony as to the efficacy of the Bitters for malaria, liver complaint, constipation, indigestion, kidney trouble, nervousness and loss of appetite and flesh. After a wetting, whether followed by a cold or not, the Bitters is useful as a preventive of the initial attack of rheumatism.

A PROMPT AND PERMANENT CURE.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

STRICKEN DEAD.

TRUSTWORTHY STATEMENTS.

A recent New York dispatch reads:

"James C. H———, a fine looking and apparently healthy man, was observed to stagger while walking on Fifth Avenue this afternoon, and after taking one or two uncertain steps fell to the sidewalk. When picked up he was dead. A physician examined the body and pronounced heart disease the cause of death. A peculiarly sad feature of the case is that Mr. H——— was on his way to Maine, to settle in the home of his boyhood. He had passed the previous ten years in the western mining country, and had amassed a fortune. If YOU have any of the symptoms given in the following testimonials you should lose no time in seeking relief.

From John L. Roberts, Slatington, Pa: "I have suffered with palpitation, irregular pulse, fainting and smothering spells, pain in shoulders, side, and arms for over forty years. For twelve years have been treated without avail by prominent physicians in my neighborhood and in New York. Growing constantly worse, smothering spells followed one another, so my life was often in danger and I needed constant care. As my son had been cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, he sent me three bottles. The first dose gave me instant relief. Before using the last bottle I was completely cured. Although seventy-five years old I feel twenty years younger. I claim my cure to be almost a miracle."

Here is a letter from Mrs. John Kolges, of Cleveland, O.: "I had been troubled with my heart and stomach for years, but for sixteen months had been confined to my bed. I had four of the best doctors in the city, but none of them could benefit the weakness of my heart. I also had dropsy and rheumatism. I never took medicine that relieved me at once as Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure does. I am much stronger. My appetite is splendid. I gain strength with every dose. I have gained more in six weeks from your treatment than in sixteen months from all the doctors."

"Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists. It is safe, effective, agreeable, and does cure." Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

James McMahon, who has been in San Jose for the past two months, is now visiting his family in Santa Rosa. Mr. McMahon contemplates going to British Columbia to look after his mining interests in that place.

A four-year-old Nutwood colt, attached to a light sulky belonging to Jacob Meyer, became entangled in a three inch rope last Sunday afternoon while tied to a hitching post in front of the Pioneer Saloon and fell down, causing much excitement in the immediate vicinity. However, little or no damage was done to either horse or sulky.

Prof. Bacon of the State University, was a visitor at the Sonoma public school last Wednesday. The Professor expressed himself as very much pleased with the work, and thinks the school has a bright future if proper steps are taken by the Board of Trustees to arrange for its growth. He says that there is no reason why Sonoma should not have as good a High School as any other town in the State. Of course, as a new class comes in next term, more room and more teaching force will be absolutely necessary.

Sonoma Lodge, No. 28, I. O. O. F., has applied to the Superior Court of this county to dissolve the incorporation, the object being to facilitate the business of the lodge, which was never in a more prosperous condition than at the present time. The Odd Fellows of Sonoma have wiped out a debt of several thousand dollars incurred a number of years ago for the purpose of improving their property on Broadway in this city, and at the present time owe less than $400. Odd Fellows Hall has as tenants Sonoma Grove, No. 75, U. A. O. D.; Pueblo Lodge, No. 168, A. O. U. W.; Sonoma Parlor, No. 111, N. S. G. W.; Young Men's Institute, No. 45. and other societies.

Following was the programme rendered at the High School yesterday by the Adelphic Literary Society: Roll call, answered by society with quotations from Longfellow; essay, "Longfellow," Harvey Perkins; song, "Little Busy Bee," society; reading, "The Last Lesson," Emily Potter; essay, "The Great Wall of China." Florence Thompson; duet, "Music on the Waves," Bertha Campbell and Stella Johnson; reading, "Candy Making and Candy Eating," Mabel Lowell. Debate, resolved, "That the Sonoma Valley Union High School Should not be Moved to the College Building on Broadway." The subject was open to the house. Song, "Home Sweet Home," society.

Edison's Phonograph which will be exhibited at Union Hall to-night is one of the largest on the Coast. The machine will be so placed that everybody in the audience will be able to catch every note and sound as they eminate from its wonderful interior. There will be songs from Patti and other great singers, speeches from the great orators of the day, and music from the Washington Marine Band and other celebrated military bands. Park's string band of Santa Rosa has been engaged to play for the hop which will conclude what promises to be one of the most successful entertainments ever held in Sonoma. The price of admission is only fifty cents. Children will be charged only half-price.

The Sonoma House is the house for commercial travelers. C. F. Rodin, proprietor. *

Death of a Prominent Man.

William H. Graves, the wealthy rancher and capitalist, died at his home near this place on Friday night of last week at half-past eleven o'clock. Mr. Graves located in Sonoma about a year ago and purchased three large adjoining farms which he converted into one large ranch and stocked with a large number of fine racing horses. Extensive stables were built and many other improvements made on his purchase and employment given to a number of men. About a month ago he returned from a European tour and appeared much improved in health and his death was a surprise to his many friends throughout the State, although he was over 71 years of age. His remains were embalmed and taken to San Francisco last Sunday, from whence they were shipped to Booneville, Oneida county, New York, for interment. Mr. Graves was a bachelor and his only relative on the Coast is his brother R. H. Graves, the wealthy mining man of San Francisco. He was a Mason in high standing Mr. Graves' death at this time is a great loss to Sonoma Valley, as it was the intention of deceased to advance the interests of this section to the extent of his means, which were considerable.

Savage Fight in Glen Ellen.

Wm. McCauley, residing at 520 Bush street, San Francisco, became involved in an altercation with an unknown man on the picnic grounds, Glen Ellen, last Sunday, and was badly whipped in the scrapping match that followed. From words they came to blows and McCauley when the fight was over was a sight to behold. His lower jaw was fractured and he was fearfully cut up by the fists of his antagonist about the head and body. He was assisted aboard the train by friends and upon arriving in San Francisco was taken to the Receiving Hospital and treated by Dr. Dean. His jaw is so badly injured that he will be unable to talk and masticate for some time to come.

Sentence Postponed.

Felicci Clerite and Cæsar Galli, convicted of assault with a deadly weapon for having cut a fellow countryman named Perasso in this place on last Christmas night, and who were to have been sentenced by Judge Dougherty last Monday, have had their sentence postponed until next Monday. Pietro Ubaldi, the third of the trio engaged in the affair, and who escaped with a conviction for simple assault, was sentenced to pay a fine of $400 or serve a sentence of 200 days in the County Jail.

The Graves Estate.

Rebt. N. Graves has applied for letters of administration on the estate of his brother, W. H. Graves, who died at his home near Sonoma on Friday night of last week. The petition states that the deceased has no living relatives other than the petitioner and two sisters, Mrs. Ella G. Barton and Mrs Anna Benedict. The estate is valued at $200,000, and consists of real estate, personal property, stocks and bonds.

THE DONAHUE LINE.

Prospects of Improvements About Ukiah.

Solicitor and Director Sidney V. Smith of the Donahue Railroad, one of the quartet who put up the $850,000 paid the Donahue estate for its 42,000 shares in the railroad, left Ukiah last Tuesday afternoon with his family and servants in one of the company's combined parlor and dining cars. Mr. Smith went there Sunday for the purpose of enjoying an indefinite season of observation round about this northern terminus of the road, but owing to the rain and muddy roads his project was deferred.

It is reported to be the intention of the new company to make a detour to the right three miles to Vichy Springs, and at that point establish the Hotel del Monte of their system. It is also their intention to extend assistance to all the numerous other surrounding summer resorts.

The new extra 7 A. M. daily train for San Francisco will commence running next Monday, to arrive at San Francisco at 12 and leave on the return trip at 3:30 P. M.—San Francisco Call.

LUTTRELL IN WASHINGTON.

He Has Sold His Alaska Coal Mine and is Loaded Down With Twenties.

The special Washington correspondent of the "Examiner," Tom Williams, announces the arrival in that city of Hon. J. K. Luttrell of this place. Tom, who by the way, is one of the spiciest newsgatherers on the coast, is well-known to many Sonoma society people, having on more than one occasion attended parties in this valley. He dances to perfection and "is just too lovely for anything." from a feminine standpoint. In a dispatch to his paper, written last Monday, he announces the advent of Mr. Luttrell in the capital. He jocosely says: "J. K. Luttrell appeared in the California colony this morning. He had sold his Alaska coal mine by noon and was ready to talk with the President after lunch. He says he would not take the Mint if he could get it, and has indorsed John Daggett for the place, but he would like to be made Governer of Alaska, as it would give him an opportunity to boom that undelveloped land of wealth. He says the company that will develop his coal lands will supply San Francisco with fine coal at $5 per ton. He had a pocketful of twenty-dollar gold pieces, one of which he threw down on the bar when he invited John Daggett, John H. Wise and Thomas Beck to join him. The barkeeper had never seen one before and declined to accept it on the grounds that he could not afford to take any risks."

Cemetery Improvements.

Many improvements are being made in Mountain Cemetery by City Trustees Trudgen and Litzius. In addition to the building of a new entrance gate and a row of hitching posts, mention of which has already been made in these columns, walks and avenues have been laid off and the rank growth of scrub-oaks and underbrush lying in the pathway of the avenues has been cleared off and burned. This latter work is being accomplished without any expense to the city whatever, a man having taken the contract of removing the underbrush for the wood he can secure out of the rubbish. Notices have also been posted in various parts of the cemetery instructing owners of lots to enclose and mark their names on the same. In this connection we will state that the Cemetery Committee have no desire to entail a hardship on the owners of lots who are too poor to stand the expense of building fences. For all such it will be sufficient to stake out their lots and have their names plainly painted on one of the posts. But surely those who are able ought not to complain for being compelled to enclose a plot of ground that is given gratis by the city to residents within the incorporated limits and at so small a cost to outsiders that the lot practically amounts to a gift. The present Cemetery Committee is doing a great deal of good work and ought to receive the encouragement of all our citizens in their laudable undertaking.

City Trustees.

At the meeting of City Trustees held Wednesday evening of last week very little business of importance was transacted owing to the absence of two of the five members. A Babcock fire extinguisher was ordered purchased at a cost of $5. Trustee Schocken, of the street committee, was instructed to carry out a previous order of the Board to advertise for bids to construct a culvert from Duhring's corner to the small creek below the postoffice building. The following bills were allowed and ordered paid: F. Breitenbach, service and cash, $5.75; G. W. Sparks, salary, $15; P. Bacala, labor, $5; L. Litzius, cleaning fire apparatus, $7.50; H. H. Granice, printing, $3; J. O. Burkhalter, work on bridge at Duhring's crossing, $15.

The Entertainment To-night.

Go to Union Hall to-night and hear Patti sing through Edison's phonograph. This machine is no toy but one of the most powerful ever turned out by the Edison Company. Mr. C. Nestor Edison of San Francisco, the manager for the Pacific Coast, has kindly volunteered his services and the use of the phonograph to the Columbia Athletic Club among whom he numbers several intimate friends.

The Boggs Carriger Case.

The second trial for murder in the Boggs Carrigar case will commence in the Superior Court at Santa Rosa next Tuesday.

Go to the Sonoma House for a good meal. *

In the famous cellars of the Hotel de Ville at Bremen there are a dozen cases of holy wine, which has been preserved for 250 years. If the cost of maintaining the cellar, payment of rent, interest upon the original value of the wine and other incidental charges are considered, a bottle of this choice wine has cost $2,000,000, each glassful $270,000, and a single drop could not be sold without loss under $200.

A German statistician finds that the most unlucky day of the week, so far as accidents to human beings are concerned, is not Friday, but Monday; 16.74 per cent of all accidents occur Mondays, 15.51 per cent Tuesdays 16.31 per cent Wednesdays, 15.47 per cent Thursdays, 16.38 per cent Fridays, the same per cent Saturdays, and 2.69 per cent Sundays.

America's two great celebration years are distinguished by two closely related achievements of the utmost importance to civilized humanity. The Centennial Exhibition brought out the telephone and showed the possibility of conveying speech to a distance. The Columbian Exposition comes to us with the perfect telautograph, which confers the scarcely less marvelous power of writing in one's own hand on a sheet of paper hundreds of miles away.

This is what President Eliot said on marriage before the Harvard Young Men's Christian Association recently: An element in a satisfactory career is a family life—the great source of human happiness. This family life is something to look forward to. Look forward in your physical and mortal life to marriage and children, and you will never prepare for anything better in this life. The choice of a wife is the most important choice you will ever make. Do not make it hastily, and do not marry for anything but love. The most idiotic thing of all is to marry for money. Of course I do not mean to say that you cannot marry for love and money both. Married life improves as it goes on. You may think your wedding day the happiest of your life, but it will not be, for your happiness will increase until you become a patriarch.

THE COMING MAN.

Oh, not for the great departed
Who formed our country's laws,
And not for the bravest hearted
Who died in freedom's cause,
And not for some living hero
To whom all bend the knee,
My muse would raise her song of praise—
But for the man to be.

For out of the strife which woman
Is passing through today
A man that is more than human
Shall yet be born, I say.
A man in whose pure spirit
No dross of self will lurk;
A man who is strong to cope with wrong,
A man who is proud to work.

A man with hope undaunted,
A man with godlike power
Shall come when he most is wanted;
Shall come at the needed hour.
He shall silence the din and clamor
Of clan disputing with clan,
And toil's long fight with purse proud might
Shall triumph through this man.

I know he is coming, coming,
To help, to guide, to save,
Though I hear no martial drumming
And see no flags that wave.
But the great soul travail of woman,
And the bold, free thought unfurled,
Are heralds that say he is on the way—
The coming man of the world.

Mourn not for vanished ages
With their great heroic men,
Who dwell in history's pages
And live through the poet's pen,
For the grandest times are before us,
And the world is yet to see
The noblest worth of this old earth
In the men that are to be.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox in New York Truth.

In His Pocket For Fifty Years.

Mr. S. T. Fulton, who recently came to Du Bois from Smicksburg, Indiana county, carries in his trousers pocket a brass medal that has been with him for more than 50 years. When he was a young man, more than half a century ago, he was teaching school down in Cambria county, and while there Matthew W. Gibson, a young Catholic priest, became his fast friend. Mr. Fulton is not a Catholic, but when he left Cambria county Father Gibson gave him the medal that he still carries.

It is a round piece of brass about the size of a half dollar and engraved on both sides, but now worn almost smooth from having been carried in Mr. Fulton's pocket so many years. On one side is the head of Mary, the mother of Christ, and the letters "O. P. M. Mother, Pray For Us." On the other side is the head of Christ and "Man Salvator." The young priest who gave it to Mr. Fulton informed him that it had come from Rome and had been blessed by the pope.—Du Bois Courier.

Evidence by Photography.

An instance of the safety and certainty of photography as a witness occurred at an inquest. A servant fell while cleaning a window and was killed. No one saw the accident. But her employer, who happened to be an amateur photographer, took a photograph of the window before anything was disturbed. This photograph showed the position of the sashes, the wash leather, dusters, etc., on the sill, and satisfied the coroner that the girl was sitting outside at the time she fell and was not leaning out from the inside. It is suggested that the time is not far distant when a photographer will be officially attached to every division of police.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Position of a Sister.

A sister is a sort of a guardian angel in the home circle. Her presence condemns vice. She is the quickener of good resolutions, the sunshine in the pathway of home. To every brother she is light and life. Her heart is the treasure house of confidence. In her he finds a safe adviser, a charitable, forgiving, tender, though often undeserved friend. In her he finds a ready companion. Her sympathy is as open as day and sweet as the fragrance of flowers.—Exchange.

Some Maine Mothers.

"Talk about the decadence of American families!" exclaims our Ashland correspondent. "There are now living within a radius of 10 miles of Ashland 8 American women who are the mothers of 102 children, 80 of whom are living in the enjoyment of good health and sound minds."—Lewiston Journal.

If one watches the water falling over the rock at Niagara, he may see it of an emerald green near the upper part of the fall. Much the same effect is produced when billows are just curving into breakers on the beach directly in front of us.

It is said that a really indelible ink and a kind of vinegar can be produced from the juices contained in the banana peel. The fiber of the peel, it is said, can also be utilized in making cloth of great strength and remarkable beauty.

Nearly every man is managed by some woman, consciously or unconsciously on the part of the man. The men who are unconscious of such management and would resent the intimation are the most managed of all.

In the manufactures of Great Britain alone the power which steam exerts is estimated to be equal to the manual labor of 4,000,000,000 men, or several times more than the number of males supposed to inhabit the globe.

WHAT THE DOCTORS SAY.

THEY AGREE UPON AN IMPORTANT SUBJECT.

After a Most Careful Investigation They Completely Endorse One of the Greatest Discoveries of the Age

Did you ever stop to think that the hardest worked people in the world are physicians? They are called out at all hours of the night; they have no day of rest; they are brought in contact with suffering constantly; there is a great strain upon them, especially if they have sympathetic natures. It is not surprising, therefore, that they feel distrustful of preparations or remedies seeking to cure without the aid of a physician—it is only natural that they should feel so. But when prominent and well-known physicians voluntarily make such statements as follows, it is not only remarkable, but shows how certain they must be of the truth of what they say:

L. E. Quimby, M. D., Rangely, Me.: "Although it is not considered etiquette for a practicing physician to in any way aid in the introduction or sale of a proprietary medicine, still when we meet with an article of undoubted merit I believe it becomes our duty to not only use that article in our practice, but to introduce it to others and let them know what it will do. An old acquaintance of mine had been a sufferer from bilious headache for 40 years. The attacks came regularly every two weeks, and lasted, on the average, two days, she being confined to her bed during this time, suffering intensely. Hundreds of dollars had been expended in medicines and doctors, but without any permanent relief. She was at last persuaded to try Warner's Safe Cure. Seven bottles cured her of this terrible disease, and during the last seven years she has not had a single attack of the old trouble. This after having been afflicted for 40 years.

"In October, 1884, I was called to attend the little son of David Moore, of Madrid, Maine. I found him suffering from general anasarca, and bloated so that it was very hard for the little fellow even to breathe. By the heroic use of diuretics, cathartics and absorbents I was able to temporarily relieve him. But, do all I could, the same condition would present itself as soon as the medicine was stopped. I had three of the old physicians of the County in consultation, but it did no good. The boy failed every day. I do not believe that under our treatment he would have lived two months. I gave him up, and as a favor requested the father to try Warner's Safe Cure. The first bottle relieved him more than all our medicines had done, and less than a dozen bottles permanently cured him, and he is to-day as tough and rugged as any boy in town."

Tyre York, M. D., House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., says: "Some time since I contracted malarial fever in Eastern North Carolina, and suffered very much for two months. The disease finally located in my kidneys, and I had almost given up ever getting well again, when I commenced taking Warner's Safe Cure and at once found relief. My urine has been for a long time almost the color of blood. Very soon after taking the Safe Cure it cleared up and my kidneys were as sound as ever. I think Warner's Safe Cure a great blessing to mankind, and if taken regularly will cure almost any disease of the kidneys. I take great pleasure in prescribing it in my practice."

J. D. A. Pohte, Buffalo, N. Y., declares: "Some time ago I had a patient suffering severely from Bright's disease, the urine being nearly one-half albumen with casts plentiful under the microscope. I treated her with all the remedies usually employed by medical men, but without any perceptible benefit. Having heard so much of Warner's Safe Cure, and knowing that the regular prescriptions were useless from trial, I recommended its use. From the very first bottle she commenced to mend, and after she had taken some half dozen bottles the albumen had disappeared, the urine resumed its normal color and the patient recovered entirely from her kindey trouble. This unexpected result gave me great confidence in the remedy and, putting aside my professional prejudice, and with an eye single to my patients' welfare, I have continued to prescribe it in many instances, and with uniform success."

B. H. Mars, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.: "After using all remedies known to me as a regular graduate and practician physician in one or two cases of kidney disease or Bright's disease, I concluded to prescribe Warner's Safe Cure. It worked like magic and restored the patients to health, which greatly astonished me. If the virtures of your remedy were known among doctors they would certainly prescribe it for kidney disease." C. Onyette, M. D., Wyandotte, Kas.: "With Warner's Safe Cure I have cured several cases of Bright's disease and other very bad kidney disorders. I believe it far superior to any remedy known to the medical profession. It is one of my daily prescriptions, and is of great service in every instance."

These are doctors of standing, dignity and conservatism. They make no statements, but such as they have ascertained to be true after the most careful investigation and their statements prove beyond question the power and value of this great scientific preparation of which they speak.

PASTOR KOENIGS NERVE TONIC

TRADE MARK

ALAMOSA, COL., Jan., 93. All

My wife was troubled with nervousness about one year before she took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and at that time had very severe attacks of spasm, convulsion, and pains in different parts of the body; when in this state her lower jaws would act violently and set sometimes, bite her tongue, breathe heavily, then short, then seemed to stop entirely, get a wild look in her eyes and rolling around, then stop sometimes; it would take two men to hold her in bed, otherwise her body would cramp and be so for two hours. She took but two bottles of the Nerve Tonic, which cured her entirely of all these torments, which myself and wife gladly testify it truly has the desired effect
